

FROM POLICE DEPARTMENT . . . Miss Jackie Johnson, daughter of Police Sergeant and Mrs. Swayne Johnson, 2841 Sonoma Ave., and Jay R. Stroh, son of Police Chief and Mrs. John H. Stroh, 1732 Watson Ave., fill punch glasses at a reception following their wedding at the First Lutheran Church here Sunday. Now honeymooning in Hawaii, they plan to make their home at 1732 Watson Ave.

Sunday-wed Jay Strohs Honeymoon In Hawaii after Lutheran Ceremony

A "Paradise in the Pacific," Hawaii, is honeymoon setting today for the former Miss Jackie Johnson and Jay R. Stroh, who linked names Sunday at ceremonies in the First Lutheran Church here.

The newly-weds enplaned for the islands immediately after they were entertained by members of their families and the bridal entourage at a dinner party at Mike Lyman's. The family party followed a reception at the church social hall, which was attended by about 800 guests.

Police Sgt. Swayne Johnson, father of the bride, gave her in marriage during the 4 o'clock service read by the Rev. Paul Wenske. Gowned in white lace over satin, featuring a cathedral train of lace sparkling with sequins, she carried a white Bible centered with a single white orchid from which cascaded white streamers. A second pearl crown held the illusion veil in place.

Costumes of Miss Johnson's attendants carried out the fall theme, with each girl gowned in autumn shades and carrying a basket of fall fruits and leaves.

Mrs. Aravin Dandoy (the former Maureen Mathews) served as matron of honor in cinnamon brown taffeta, while similar costumes, in marigold, beige, and fawn were worn by the three bridesmaids, Miss Mary Herman, Mrs. Harvey Rushfeldt, and Mrs. Frank Jarratt.

Frank Jarratt stood at the groom's side as his best man, while Ralph George, Eugene Northway, and Ed King served as ushers.

For her son's wedding, Mrs. John Stroh chose a powder blue gown with matching accessories and a corsage of pale yellow roses. The same flowers, in a pink-orchid shade, were worn en corsage by the mother of the bride to complement her navy blue gown and pink accessories.

Prior to the ceremony, candles were lighted by Diane and Linda Johnson, gowned in white, and William Johnson Jr. sang "Because" and "I Love You" accompanied by Mrs. Joseph Bay at the organ. While the bride and groom knelt at the altar, Johnson sang "The Lord's Prayer," again accompanied by Mrs. Bay.

The new Mrs. Stroh, daughter of Police Sgt. and Mrs. Swayne Johnson, 2841 Sonoma Ave., is a graduate of Torrance High School. Her husband, son of Police Chief and Mrs. John H. Stroh, 1732 Watson Ave., also a graduate from Torrance High School and the University of Southern California. He currently serves in the Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department.

After a 10-day sojourn in the islands, the newly-weds will make their home at 1732 Watson Ave.

Local Prexy Addresses Soroptimists

Employment problems of the older woman were discussed by Mrs. Winona Ellis, president of Torrance - Gardena Soroptimist Club and manager of the local California State Employment office at a District I of Pacific Region, American Federation of Soroptimist Clubs convention held last Saturday at the Miramar Hotel in Santa Monica.

Mrs. Ellis' talk was included in a panel entitled "Second Horizons" and devoted to the interests of older women.

Also representing the local Soroptimists at the session were V. Evelyn Weback, delegate; Anne Sandstrom, and Lela Smith.

Among convention highlights were an address by Miss Mary Ellen Pangle of Riverside, governor of Pacific Region and a member of the board of the American Federation Soroptimist Clubs; a reception at the hotel Friday evening, and an informal dinner Saturday evening.

Included in District I are 32 Soroptimist Clubs in Los Angeles, Santa Barbara, and Ventura counties. District I is one of the two districts in Pacific Region, the 14th region in the American Federation of Soroptimist Clubs, which comprises all branches of the organization.

Local Women Attend Floral Exhibit, Tea

New knowledge in the art of arranging flowers was gained by Mesdames C. W. Hood, Douglas McClay and John Briscoe of Torrance Terrace Garden Club when they attended the recent annual formal tea and exhibition of the Floral Designers Club, held at the Trade Technical College in Beverly Hills.

John Sable, instructor of the Torrance Adult Education floral arrangement class in which many Garden Clubbers are enrolled, also attended.

"We were surprised to find many of the present-day standard rules of floral arranging broken at this showing," Mrs. Hood, publicity chairman, said. "Arrangements were done with two and four blooms, in place of the basic three, five, and seven blooms. The use of discolored and bug-eaten leaves, formerly taboo, added character and realism to the displays."

"However, our instructor pointed out to us," Mrs. Hood continued, "that the basic fundamentals of flower arranging should be thoroughly understood before originality and variation such as shown by professional designers at this exhibit can be successfully accomplished."

Lioness Club Fetes Hubbies At Dinner

Starting off the festivities with cocktails at the 714 Madrid Ave. home of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Bowman, Lioness Club members and their husbands visited several homes in the community last Saturday night for a progressive dinner party.

The couples entered the 2038 Torrance Blvd. home of the H. J. Osbornes for the salad course and then hurried over to 1318 10th St., where Mr. and Mrs. Fred Boren had prepared an entree of baked ham. The president of the Lioness group and her husband, president of the Lions, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Peterson, 17510 Ardath Ave., opened their home for the dessert course and an evening of games and charades.
